Welcome to The Doyle Collection

The Doyle Collection is a unique selection of eleven urban havens, extending across six major cities in the U.S., the U.K. and Ireland. Each boast their own contrasting character, but all share a common goal – to provide a modern interpretation of extraordinary hospitality and service.

The eleven properties within The Doyle Collection have all been renovated over the past two years to an exceptional level of specification. Quite simply, we've left no stone unturned in creating a range of magnificently appointed hotels. But it's not just their physical opulence that sets them apart. We also set the standard when it comes to unstinting, personal service – the thoughtful little gestures that compensate you for being away from home.

Make a start today on experiencing the collective individuality of The Doyle Collection. We promise you that it's an experience like no other.

Dublin - the city that speaks to the soul

Dubliners have always had a way with words. The city's great literary figures drank, talked and created masterpieces in the pubs on our doorstep. And we are within minutes' walk of some of the venues where momentous events gave birth to our modern free state less than a century ago.

We are within equally short distance of the great Georgian squares of Dublin, with their echoes of a grander age. You can visit Cows Lane Designer Market, browse quirky local boutiques and explore the Hugh Lane Gallery to discover the best of modern creative Dublin.

Or perhaps savour the taste of joyful traditional Dublin at the Guinness Storehouse or Jameson Distillery before immersing yourself in the legendary social life. But whatever aspect of Dublin you choose to explore, you're never far from it at The Westbury or The Croke Park Hotel.

On the street where Dublin lives

The Westbury Hotel is one of the Leading Hotels of the World, and has been completely re-modelled to create a more opulent and stylish five-star experience that sets the standard in Dublin. And simply no other hotel connects you with the city in the way that The Westbury Hotel does.

Located half-way between historic Trinity College and Stephen's Green, The Westbury Hotel is at the very heart of Dublin's premier retail and cultural quarter, with great shopping, great pubs and restaurants, and great theatres and nightlife literally on your doorstep.

The Westbury Hotel offers a genuine old-style Dublin welcome whether you're relaxing in The Gallery, dining in either of our two superb restaurants or doing business in our superbly equipped conference suites. It's little wonder that it's Dublin's favourite meeting place.

Beside Ireland's field of dreams

The Croke Park Hotel is located directly across the road from the spiritual home of our native Gaelic games, which also doubles as a concert venue that has played host to the biggest acts in the world.

Easily accessed from Dublin Airport and just ten minutes walk from the centre of Dublin, it's right at the heart of the action when it comes to sporting, entertainment and business events in Dublin. It also offers some of Ireland's finest meeting, conference and exhibition facilities in the country, in a modern, custom-built Conference Centre set against a truly unique backdrop.

With its spacious, contemporary interiors, luxurious bedrooms and buzzing bistro and bar, it makes every occasion special. So whether you're in Dublin for the match, the concert or that important business meeting, you'll find a hotel that's right at the heart of the action.

London - the world in one place

Samuel Johnson was right when he said that if you are tired of London, you are tired of life. It's the city with everything – history, theatres, architecture, nightlife, and culture like no other. And shopping that sets a world standard.

It's the city made famous by Big Ben and the British Museum, and by Buckingham Palace and St Paul's Cathedral. There's an air of adventure in Soho, blissful tranquility in Hyde Park, and a sense of discreet opulence in Marylebone's chic boutiques where celebrities shop incognito.

Literary London lingers in Bloomsbury's sophisticated squares, while marvellous eateries abound among the legendary shops of Knightsbridge and Kensington. The choice is yours, but whichever quarter of London you choose to stay in, there's a jewel of The Doyle Collection right at the heart of it.

London's finest townhouse

Queen's Gate in Kensington is unquestionably one of London's finest addresses, and in The Kensington Hotel, it finds one of its finest Regency properties. Following an extensive £20m renovation, it is perfectly authentic in every detail.

Three of the city's greatest museums are around the corner, while Hyde Park, the Royal Albert Hall and the Albert Memorial, the exhibition centres of Earls Court and Olympia, and the fashionable shops of Fulham Road and Knightsbridge are all only minutes away.

A stay at The Kensington Hotel is like having a personal and intimate pied-à-terre in a chic, luxury townhouse, full of period character and with a level of unobtrusive personal service that is simply unbeatable. It's Regency elegance with a delightful touch of contemporary panache, and at an address that puts you at the very heart of London.

The village within a city

After a lavish and elegant refurbishment, The Marylebone Hotel is a haven of understated and contemporary luxury that turns even the briefest of stays into a genuine pleasure. It's centrally located right in the heart of Marylebone village, with its stylish shopping streets that are home to a wonderful selection of quirky shops and boutiques.

Walk just slightly further afield and you're sampling the delights of Oxford Circus or Bond Street, or the world-status cultural attractions, like Madame Tussauds, Theatreland or the Wallace Collection.

With faultless service, gourmet dining and fully-equipped health, leisure and business facilities, it feels like your own private club. So whether for business or pleasure, make your next trip to London an experience where you can savour the soul of a village in the heart of the city.

Well-connected in Washington

Cosmopolitan, historic and completely iconic, Washington DC is a melting pot of ideas, styles and surprises. Today, a new spirit adds vibrancy to the great sights: the Lincoln Memorial, the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian museums, Capitol Hill, and the most iconic of them all - The White House.

There's cobblestoned old Georgetown, first-rate shopping and the arts and crafts of Eastern Market, or for a touch of unexpected adventure, try the International Spy Museum or the Newseum.

Embassies, restaurants, bookshops and cafés cluster around the historic hub of Dupont Circle. And within this magnificent and exciting city, The Doyle Collection presents three world-class hotels, perfect urban havens of character and understated luxury that are ideal for experiencing wonderful Washington, D.C.

The exciting new face of Washington

Following a $52 million refurbishment, The Dupont Hotel is the new standard bearer for an energetic and vibrant Washington that's rapidly claiming its place among the most happening of cities in the world.

Ideally located overlooking Dupont Circle, it is within easy walking distance of leafy, European-style avenues with their embassies, cafés and bookshops. From the beautiful new interior of The Dupont Hotel to its sumptuous bedrooms and suites, understated but unstinting quality is in evidence throughout.

And nowhere is this more apparent than on the new level, Level Nine, a hotel within a hotel which is simply the last word in exclusivity. The Dupont Hotel has also set the standard for service excellence, whether it's dining in our Café Dupont restaurant or enjoying a drink in the stunning new Bar Dupont.

A view from the top

Perched on the hill on exclusive Connecticut Avenue and overlooking Dupont Circle, The Courtyard Hotel offers unparalleled views of Washington DC. The recent refurbishment not only reinforced The Doyle Connection's sense of confidence but understated luxury, it also added floor-to-ceiling windows in every room whose glorious panoramas are beautiful by day, and spectacular by night.

Long renowned for its friendly and efficient service, it's perfectly placed for viewing those famous sights close up or for reaching the city's business districts.

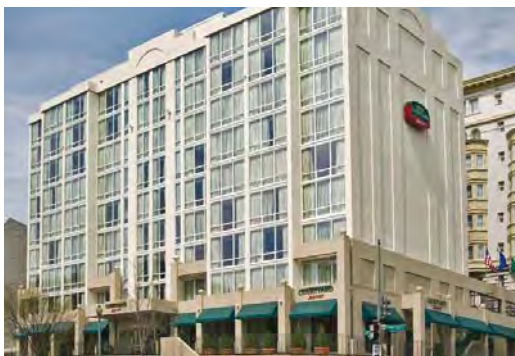

You can sample wonderful French-American cuisine in the Claret Restaurant or enjoy a drink in the warm, club-like atmosphere of the Lobby Lounge. And when not indulging yourself, you can work out in the gym or splash out in the outdoor swimming pool. Or perhaps just relax and look out of your window, connecting with this fascinating and absorbing city.
