Welcome to The Westbury Hotel

The Doyle Collection brings together a select group of urban havens in six major cities. Eleven hotels of contrasting character share a single aim: to provide our guests with a modern interpretation of extraordinary hospitality and expert service.

We are proud that The Westbury Hotel, one of The Leading Hotels of the World, spectacularly achieves this ambition. Lavishly refurbished, its design ethos embodies simple, understated luxury for business and pleasure. Set in the fashionable hub of Dublin's business and cultural life, it provides a unique sense of place amid five-star luxury.

We pride ourselves, too, that this legendary hotel continues its tradition as a true Dublin icon, a jewel worthy of the magnificent Doyle Collection.

A Living Icon

The Westbury Hotel is a Dublin icon, a five-star oasis of luxury, style and indulgence that is an integral part of the city centre experience. Lavishly restyled in a multi-million euro refurbishment, it offers guests spacious and subtly lit bedrooms in a luxurious urban haven to call their own.

Its unbeatable location on Grafton Street, with St Stephen's Green and Trinity College at either end, puts the city's history, culture and entertainment within walking distance.

As befits one of The Leading Hotels of the World, its uniquely versatile and well-equipped Meetings and Events Centre features a fantastic range of services.

And for relaxation and sheer pleasure, it proudly presents four sumptuously designed venues for coffee or a cocktail, dinner or a snack. Everywhere, brilliant service reinforces memorable luxury as only The Doyle Collection knows how.

Your Own Private Hideaway

What a welcoming personal retreat at the end of a fabulous Dublin day. All bedrooms at The Westbury Hotel have been magnificently refurbished to speak to your senses, with colours to rest the eyes and textures to calm the nerves. They are spacious, stylishly lit and sumptuously furnished, with silk curtains, flat-screen TVs and iPod-compatible music systems.

Superior Rooms: Here is space you can really enjoy, 25 square metres featuring custom-designed furniture, Sealy beds, Lissadell bed linen, coffees by Nespresso and luxury bathroom products.

Deluxe Rooms: If you want to work or just luxuriate in ultra-elegant spaciousness, extra room makes a lot of difference. All the comforts of superior rooms - and more, with approximately 43 square metres, and a well-equipped work area, with the design flair and eye for detail that typifies The Doyle Collection, are at your command.

The Ultimate Retreat

If you have a talent for indulging yourself, prepare to use it now. All rooms at The Westbury Hotel impress, but the magnificently restyled suites take The Doyle Collection's brand of memorable luxury up several notches.

Studio Suites: With 50 square metres to play with, treat yourself to a master bedroom with a four-poster bed, living room, a dedicated work area and, of course a full entertainment system.

Luxury Suites: Enjoy enthraling views of Dublin outside, and revel inside in the exquisite décor and high-end digital technology. Spoil yourself in 72 square metres featuring the finest modern furniture, a 42" flat-screen TV and media hub. Here is the perfect setting for business or pleasure.

Presidential Suite: The epitome of understated indulgence covering 140 square metres, this is an elegant luxury apartment fit for a head of state, complete with sauna and steam room.

The Epitome of Good Taste

The Gallery: If Grafton Street is the shopping HQ of Dublin, here is its supremely civilised Drawing Room, where the city's business and cultural aristocracy gather for a tête-à-tête or a sumptuous afternoon tea. Overlooking thronged Grafton Street and displaying a unique collection of Irish art acquisitions, it epitomises elegant good taste.

Wilde – The Restaurant: A grill restaurant serving fine artisanal Irish produce and excellent wines in an elegantly understated setting. Michelin-starred John Wood's menu emphasises seasonal ingredients.

The Marble Bar: Rich dark purples and black Nero Marquina marble create an almost decadent cave of contemporary design – and an irresistible temptation to indulge in premium champagnes and brilliantly inventive cocktails

Café Novo: A chic international bar and brasserie with a menu of traditional favourites given a fresh, new twist in a fun and lively environment.

It's a Pleasure Doing Business

Luxury means making everything our guests do a pleasure – including business. The elegance and style of The Westbury Hotel creates the perfect, sensationally well-equipped working ambiance.

Seven magnificent, state-of-the-art boardroom suites can host from 8 to 50 people, offering cutting-edge technology and an experienced Meetings and Events Team to ensure efficiency at all levels. Bedrooms and suites are marvelously equipped to keep you in touch, with the hotel offers all the facilities of a 24-hour office – write it, copy it, send it...fast.

The Grafton Suite's elegance is matched by its versatility, making it a regular venue for society events and prestigious international forums. Capable of hosting up to 200 guests, it provides the most memorable of backdrops. Little wonder the five-star Westbury Hotel is the wedding setting of choice for the most discerning couples.

With a Song in Your Heart

Let your heart sing, for in choosing The Westbury Hotel, you have placed yourself in the beating heart of Dublin and all its treasures are on your doorstep. Grafton Street, sheer paradise for shoppers, links historic St Stephen's Green with Trinity College, home to the Book of Kells.

There's the magnificence of O'Connell Street and the historically evocative General Post Office. Literary landmarks abound: tours in the steps of the great writers will reveal gracious Georgian Dublin. Visit Cows Lane Designer Market and the Hugh Lane Gallery and discover modern creative Dublin. And savour the taste of joyful traditional Dublin at the Guinness brewery or Jameson distillery.

And then, of course, there are fantastic theatres and galleries - plus the inimitably Irish welcome that awaits you in Dublin's pubs and bars, and no end of live venues and nightclubs.
